Permission to Publish Photographs Contract

1. Purchase of a photographic print does not carry with it the right to publish or make a reproduction in any form. Researchers may not reproduce or permit others to reproduce purchased photographic copies without written permission from the Auburn Historical Society.
2. Permission is for non-exclusive, one-time use only, with no other rights. Permission is limited to the use and format as indicated by the applicant only, and excludes all other uses and formats. All subsequent use and reuse, in any form, must be applied for in writing.
3. Permission is valid only for the individual, company, or institution to whom it is specifically issued and may not be transferred, assigned, sold, or otherwise disposed of without prior written permission of the Auburn Historical Society.
4. In authorizing the publication of a photographic copy, the Auburn Historical Society does not surrender its own right to use the image, or to grant that right to others.
5. A credit line must appear directly beneath the image published or reproduced. The proper citation for each image should read "Courtesy of the Auburn Historical Society."
6. One complimentary copy of any publication in which images from the Auburn Historical Society appear shall be sent to the Auburn Historical Museum, 41 South Street, Auburn, MA 01501. This includes books, brochures, pamphlets, periodicals, exhibition catalogues, and other media.
7. Responsibility for observance of copyright and other publication rights, including literary rights, as defined by the Copyright Act of 1998, rests with the applicant and not with the Auburn Historical Society. The applicant shall indemnify and hold harmless the Auburn Historical Society, the Auburn Historical Society, and the contributing organizations against any and all claims by third parties.
8. Auburn Historical Society reserved the right to charge for the use of materials as it deems appropriate in any individual case.
